AMERICA! MY HOME-LAND.

She gave me all that life doth prize
Beyond the despot's sway,
She set me free beneath her skies—
My life is hers to pay.
She gave me pride of home and sod,
My name American,
A country very dear to God,
Her flag my talisman.
For her I pledge my heart, my hand,
All that my soul can give.
Duty to God and my Home-Land
That truth and right may live—
Carry on!

She gave to all men, you and me
What war shall not efface,
Man's brotherhood, Democracy,
To flaunt the tyrant's face.
Democracy, O blessed word!
Blazoned o'er land and sea,
Won by my country's faith and sword
For human liberty.
For her I pledge my heart, my hand,
My life if need there be,
Duty to God and my Home-Land,
My love her victory.
Carry on!
